

Portland, Maine Culture & Cuisine

FOR 2

With award-winning food, breweries galore, and a beautiful waterfront, Portland, Maine is an amazing place to live and play. As the largest city in Maine with a population of just over 66,000, Portland is large enough to offer amazing and unique attractions but small enough to retain that quaint New England feel.

Food Tour. A leisurely-paced walking 3-hour tour that carves a path through the streets of the charming Old Port educating you on local food, drinks and history!

- OR -

Brewery Tour. This leisurely 3-hour walking tour allows you to visit and learn about notable Portland landmarks including numerous former brewery sites, along with beer tastings.

Pedal Peaks Island Tour. During this day trip, take a ferry to Peaks Island, and bike a leisurely 6 miles, experiencing breathtaking scenery and a glimpse into life on an island, topped by lunch and poke around town.
