Academic Updates

ARE YOU STRUGGLING WITH TIME MANAGEMENT?

Here are some helpful strategies

1. Use a calendar to plan ahead.
2. Make daily "To-Do" list
3. Use the A.B.C method
 - a. Must be completed today
 - b. Need to finish
 - c. Finish before the end of the week
4. Prioritize studying for test or quizzes
5. Don't procrastinate
6. Avoid distractions (phones, T.V.)
7. Work on one assignment at a time
8. Set deadlines a goals

We are Bruins 168

Jamar is a basketball player, that loves to play video games and hang with friends in his spare time. He has displayed his love for his Bruin Community and the importance of getting involved and displaying that Bruin enthusiasm. He aspires to one day become a lawyer or Engineer. Thank you Jamar for being a Bruin 168.

Bruin Reminders

Just a few important Reminders:

-  Fall is upon us please make sure that you are only wearing DPCR approved outer wear in class. Hoodies and jackets of any kind are prohibited.
-  Spirit week is next week. The days that students have CWSP they must be in their DPCR uniform unless otherwise informed by your employer.
-  Socks should be worn underneath your pants leg- not above- this is a uniform violation
-  Nose hoops and large nose rings are prohibited- this is a uniform violation
-  No book bags, jackets, hoodies, of any kind are allowed in the gym during Chapel
-  NO food should be eaten outside of the Bruin Café. Food or drinks are not allowed in the gym during school hours.

A message from Mrs. Pond

"Reading Plus Retakes:

Juniors and Seniors- if you think your reading plus InSight Assessment Score is not accurate- i.e. you weren't focused, you didn't finish, etc. send an email to Mrs. Pond, so she can coordinate your retake BEFORE the end of 1st Quarter."
